An Air Force plane made a forced landing at Hillsboro last Thursday. The plane, a P-51 fighter, piloted by Lt. Walker came down in a field on the Price farm in the Little Levels. The lieutenant said he was flying to Bolling Field, Washington, D. C., and had only five minutes supply of gasoline left, and thought the field at Hillsboro was smooth looking, and so decided to land. However, the soft turf of the meadow land was of no value as a landing place, and the craft was badly damaged.

On Monday an Air Force truck and trailer hauled away the wreckage. The long trailer proved so difficult to pass on the highway that it was followed by a long string of automobiles.

Henry Walter Adams Killed On Highway

Henry Walter Adams, 38, a resident of the Elk Mountain section of Pocahontas County, was fatally hurt on the highway at Campbelltown last week.

Incidents leading to his death at the local hospital a short time after the accident are not entirely clear, according to authorities, but it is presumed he was either struck or run over while lying in the road, by an unidentified motorist.

Adams was found at 1:15 o'clock Saturday morning by local residents, who reported the occurrence to the state police.

DRIVER ARRESTED IN TAXI WRECK

Jack Kellison, 18, of Marlinton, was arrested by state police following the wreck of a cab Sunday from the Waugh's Taxi Service, which he was driving.

According to authorities, the cab was being used to make a trip to Fairmont, carrying Burel Miller, also 18, as a passenger. Near the Hannah Service Station at Slatyfork, Kellison, believed to have been traveling at an excessive rate of speed, is reported to have passed a milk truck, and continued on the wrong side of the road until he met an oncoming car. Swerving the taxicab, Kellison ran off the highway and lost control of the vehicle which overturned.

Kellison was unhurt, but Miller sustained serious fractures of his right arm.

State police have charged Kellison with reckless driving, and also with driving a taxicab while under the age of 21 years.

REV. J. K. FLEMING LEAVING HILLSBORO

Following a pastorate of eight years at the Oak Grove Presbyterian Church at Hillsboro, Rev. J. K. Fleming and his family will move to Hedgesville in the Eastern Panhandle section of the State about November 15th, where Rev. Fleming has accepted a call to serve three churches as pastor.

Rev. Fleming and his family have had a successful pastorate at the Little Levels church, and during his service there the church has accomplished a great deal, not only in enriching the spiritual life of the congregation but also in the improvement of church property and inspiring the people to obtain the physical objects helpful to divine worship. A new electric organ was installed at the church some months ago.

The Flemings have been untiring community workers. Mr. Fleming, a veteran of World War I, has been active in the American Legion, serv-

The Masonic Grand Lodge of West Virginia will be in charge of ceremonies for the laying of a cornerstone at the new Board of Education building at Marlinton on Saturday, October 23. The program will begin promptly at 2 p. m., in charge of Most Worshipful Nelson S. Orkney, Grand Master of Masons of West Virginia, and a large number of Masonic Grand Officers from various parts of the state are planning to attend. The public is cordially invited to attend the ceremony, and a tour of inspection of the building which will follow the laying of the cornerstone.

The Board of Education's modern new building has been built out of regular Board appropriations, officials have announced, at a cost of approximately $140,000, and it has not been necessary to ask the people of the county to vote on a bond issue or an increase in taxes for the construction. The money has been largely saved from year to year to go into the building fund.

The Board has long recognized the need for a central administration building and the decision was made space for various school functions into one construction.

The building houses vocational agriculture classroom and a modern farm shop designed on the plan set up by West Virginia University's Agriculture Department.

On the ground floor there is also a modern shop for school bus repairing, storage space for eight busses and a wareroom for school supplies.

Upstairs there are five classrooms housing the seventh and eighth grades. These rooms are of approved modern design, affording the best lighting and other facilities available. Offices of the county superintendent of schools and Board of Education are also on the second floor of the new building, as well as additional school supply storage space.

The completion of the structure gives to Pocahontas County a central school administration building comparable with any in the state and will be a large factor in efficient administration of school affairs in this county for many years to come.

Schools are big business and all public business affairs must be run as efficiently as possible, and these central offices will help maintain that efficiency for our county.

INTRODUCING THE CANDIDATES

EIn the weeks remaining before the election The Journal will bring to its readers an intimate sketch of the Republican Candidates for election to County offices. The articles will be based on knowledge of these men as we have known them, and from information obtained from reliable sources of recommendation. We present them in the honest belief that they are men worthy of your support.

John H. McCutcheon, Young Greenbank Citizen, Campaigning for House of Delegates Post

By AUBREY E. FERGUSON

JOHN H. McCUTCHEON, personable young resident of the Greenbank community who is the Republican nominee for member of the House of Delegates, has been gaining considerable support for his election to that office when the citizens of Pocahontas County go to the polls at the General Election on Tuesday, November 2, to exercise the privilege of a free ballot.

Young McCutcheon is a member of a well-known family in this country. He is a son of Mrs. Iva McCutcheon and the late Dr. L. C. McCutcheon who have resided at Greenbank for many years.

Following his graduation from Greenbank high school, Mr. McCutcheon entered West Virginia University, where he was extremely active in school affairs. His unusually affable personality led to inclusion in a wide range of social and fraternity activities. He was pledged to membership in Sigma Chi, social fraternity; Phi Delta Phi, law fraternity; Alpha Psi Omega, speech honorary; the Sphinx, senior men's honorary.

THE DAILY HUNTERSVILLE NEWS

Honored by Students

Mr. McCutcheon served as treasurer of the Student Council at West Virginia University, and during his senior year was honored by his fellow students by his election as president of the Senior Class. These high ranking honors at the state's leading school led to his listing in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

With a talent for writing, John was sports editor for The Daily Athenaeum, the University's official student publication, and in addition served as campus correspondent for the United Press.

Mr. McCutcheon obtained his legal education at the University, and if the voting citizens of the county send him to serve their interests in the West Virginia House of Delegates he plans to open a law office in Marlinton at the close of the session next March.

Commended by President Roosevelt

During 1942 and 1943 Mr. McCutcheon served with the Military Intelligence Department of the Army Signal Corps and has in his possession a special certificate of commendation from the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt for his service to his country.

Credited by all who know him with keen mental alertness, young McCutcheon's many activities have given him a background for earnest realization of the importance of good legislation for his home county, and he has an accurate knowledge of the provisions by which such legislation life know that the laws which govern their welfare are made principally by the state's leading legislative branches, the West Virginia Senate and House of Delegates, and they know, too, that representation there should be placed into the hands of those who are willing to keep fully abreast of the progressive trend of present-day responsibilities which necessarily rest upon their public servants. Thus many of them have vowed their intention to support John H. McCutcheon at the polls on November 2nd, because they believe him to be capable and sincere; and feel that as a member of the House of Delegates he will command the early respect of the members from other counties; and that in his voting he will vindicate their trust by a keen discernment of what is right and wrong in the issues that are presented, and that he will oppose foolish proposals and give support to wise proposals designed for the good of the State in general and which will help Pocahontas County in particular.

Sustained by such assurances from voting citizens in both major parties John is vigorously applying himself to the duties of the present campaign.

dans to open a law office in Marlinton at the close of the session next March.

Commended by President Roosevelt

During 1942 and 1943 Mr. McUtcheon served with the Military Intelligence Department of the Army Signal Corps and has in his possession a special certificate of commendation from the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt for his service to his country.

Credited by all who know him with keen mental alertness, young McUtcheon's many activities have given him a background for earnest realization of the importance of good legislation for his home county, and he has an accurate knowledge of the provisions by which such legislation may be obtained.

In his campaign efforts he has discussed widely in his personal contacts his views pertaining to the important issues which concern Pocahontas County, its industry, agriculture, and the conservation of its abundant resources. His expressions on these subjects have won him the unstated support of persons in all sections of the county.

MASONS HONOR HOWARD BARLOW

At a meeting of the Huntersville Masonic Lodge last Friday, W. H. Barlow of Huntersville was honored by that group with the presentation of a Fifty-Year Masonic Pin.

The gift was presented by Paul Mason of the Marlinton lodge.

The Huntersville Masonic lodge is one of the oldest lodges of Masons in this territory, and Mr. Barlow has been a member there for the entire fifty years, forty years of which he served the lodge as its treasurer.

Visiting brethren from many lodges in this section and also from Virginia were in attendance at Friday's meeting.

Four children, left at home while their parents and an older sister were away for several hours, perished in a fire which destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luis Greene near the Marlinton Airport late last Friday night, December 10, 1948.

The four children, Dannie Henry Greene, 14, Robert Frank Greene, 10, Luis Bell Greene, 8, and Roy Arnold Greene, 6, were believed to have been overcome by smoke from the fire while they were asleep. They were beyond any hope of assistance before neighbors were attracted to the blaze by the noise of exploding shotgun shells.

Services for the four children were held on Monday afternoon in charge of Rev. Roger P. Melton, and the remains were laid to rest in Mt. View Cemetery.

Teachers of the children at the local schools acted as pall-bearers and their schoolmates were the flower-bearers.

Representative Paul J. Phillips negotiated the contract under the supervision of Pat Mingarelle, assisted by Willie Hughes, June Stewart, Marvin Burner, D. E. Nelson and Paul Simmons of Local 13064. ## F. E. Grogg Making Rapid Strides On Greenbank Farm

F. E. Grogg has been on his 96-acre farm in the Greenbank community only since last fall, having come there from near Wesley Chapel, but he already has made considerable progress in clearing brush land for pasture and plans early operation of a soil improvement program to increase the stock carrying capacity of his fields. Mr. and Mrs. Grogg are enrolled in the Pocahontas County Farming for Better Living program initiated this year.

In addition to operating his own farm, Mr. Grogg sharecrops an additional 50 acres of land in the neighborhood. Although he did quite a bit of clearing last spring, much remains to be done before some of the land is in suitable condition for pasturing. He has had some of his soil tested and had 10 tons of lime ready for application this summer. He expects to do a great deal of fencing and install some tile drains in the near future.

A portion of the farm income is derived from the sale of cream. Four cows were being milked this summer, and there were four heifer calves on the place destined to become future milk and cream producers. Mr.
Grogg expects to maintain a herd of five or six at all times.

Thirty-four Suffolk strain ewes were wintered on the farm, but the flock had been reduced to 20 by midsummer. The spring lamb crop numbered 14. The flock is headed by a Dorset ram. Mr. Grogg said that he had experienced very little trouble in his sheep.

The farm flock of laying hens had been culled severely, but 300 Barred Rock chicks were started last spring for meat and for next winter's layers. It was planned to keep 75 or more of them through the winter.

There were three brood sows on the farm and six spring pigs.

For feed this summer, Mr. Grogg had five acres of corn, four and a half acres of wheat and seven acres of oats. He had put in seven acres of buckwheat on shares, which he expected to supply his family with pancakes and his chickens with feed this winter. He had 17 acres of meadow containing a clover and timothy mixture on his own farm and 18 acres on land he sharecrops.

The farm garden, together with several rows of potatoes and cane, takes care of the table and canning needs of the family. There are 45 or 50 apple trees on the farm, but the fruit crop this year was light.
About 30 gallons of maple syrup were made last spring in a sugar grove on the place.

Mr. Grogg is a Soil Conservation co-operator, and a member of the Farm Bureau. Mrs. Grogg belongs to the Farm Women's Club. Three of the Grogg children, Merle, 15, Ray, 14, and Betty, 12, are 4-H Club members. Other children at home are Dorothy, Donald, Junior and the baby, Marvin. Three of the children have homes of their own or reside elsewhere. A son, Emil, lost his life while serving with the United States Army in the European theatre dur-

NURSE IN HOLLAND CARES FOR GRAVE OF EVERETT M. CURRY

Editor's note:

At Christmas time, 1946, there is occasion for Americans, and others throughout the world, to think, in more than one way, of those who died to make us free.

The accompanying picture and letter give evidence of the appreciation and tenderness with which some are accepting the service thus rendered.

Among the thousands of white crosses which mark the last resting place of heroic Americans who "paid the last full measure of devotion" to preserve the freedom of their own country and to liberate enslaved people of other nations, there is one, in a cemetery at Mar Graten, Holland, which bears the name of Everett M. Curry, of Durbin, Pocahontas County.

This young man, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Curry, and whose wife, Martha Curry, resides at Cass, was a member of the medical corps of the U. S. Army for five years. At a time when his enlistment was almost completed, he was transferred at his own request to front line duty, and on March 31, 1945, gave his life in battle at Dorsten, Germany.

In keeping with a movement on the part of her people to show their gratitude for these American heroes, a Dutch nurse, Miss Mary Knubben, of De Doorn of d Welten, Heerlen, Limburg, Holland, chose the grave of Everett Curry, and has given it the careful attention that would have been given by loved ones in America, if possible.

Miss Knubben has corresponded

And it's also unforgettable, how courageous those American mothers, wives and girls are. Indeed, here in Holland, many of the best of our boys gave the best (their lives) to help us, making free from the Nazi yoke. And how many got murdered in concentration camps here in our country and in Germany.

Well, dear Martha, God has done all those things, and we have to accept them, even if it is hard and difficult to bear it. All I can do for you, is to pray to our Lord to make you strong, to bear all the worries He has sent you. I know for sure, He will send you His richest blessings and keep you in the best of health. During the first week the student follows a schedule made up of calisthenics, tumbling, mock door (training within an airplane fuselage teaching the men proper procedure relevant to standing in the door, and the correct body position in leaving the plane), mock tower (which simulates the opening shock of a parachute), and the suspended harness which shows the new recruit means of controlling the chute while in the air.

The second week of jump school consists of five day-time jumps at an altitude of 1200 feet.

Well fenced; water by gravity to all buildings from a large, flowing spring. Ideal for a stock or dairy farm. Every acre in rich, limestone soil; considered one of the best in the county. Following the land sale, we will sell the furniture and all farming machinery and equipment — a clean-sweep sale. Views and description will be mailed on request. If you are interested in good farm land, you cannot afford to miss this worthwhile sale, as it is not often that you have the opportunity to bid on a well-located, well-improved farm with the rich bottom land that this has. #### FOR

An adequate Secondary Road Improvement program.

Increased Salaries for Teachers.

A State Supported School Building Program.

Removal of Conservation Commission from realm of partisan politics and placing control in hands of those who foot the bill—the sportsmen.

Increased facilities for the care of mental patients, etc., in state institutions.

AGAINST

The Strayer Report and the Education Amendment, both of which are part of a plan to nullify the Tax Limitation Amendment and saddle onto the home-owners, farmers and small business men increased taxes amounting to $22,000,000 annually, largely to employ fourteen assistant state superintendents of schools at Charleston without guaranteeing one nickel increase in teachers' pay.

Squandering of millions in state funds to keep unnecessary state employees on the payrolls—this money should be used for highway improvement, educational requirements and state institutions.

If elected to represent the people of the Twelfth District in the State Senate I will fight any and all measures which tend to circumvent the Tax Limitation Amendment.

Mack Brooks Named Head

At a special election held Monday the voters of the Town of Marlinton registered an emphatic "No" to the question: "Shall the sale of alcoholic beverages under the West Virginia Liquor Control Commission be permitted in Marlinton?"

With slightly less than 50 per cent of the eligible voters taking part in the election, the decision to prohibit sale of alcoholic beverages was recorded as follows:

Precinct No. 10: 216 votes cast—Yes, 101; No, 115.

Precinct No. 11: 271 votes cast—Yes, 81; No, 190.

Total vote—Yes, 182; No, 305—total of 487.

According to recent figures the Town of Marlinton has approximately 1,033 eligible voters, which indicates that 546 persons refrained from making any expression at the polls on the question involved.

A special meeting of the Town Council was held Tuesday night for the purpose of canvassing the vote in order to certify the returns to the West Virginia Liquor Control Commission. According to officials the Commission has a period of 30 days in which to close out the business of the local whiskey store.

AN EDITORIAL

The Nurses' Home

Reports this week that arrangements were being made for the transfer of a clinic property beside the Pocahontas Memorial Hospital to be used as a Nurses' Home, reveal that practically all plans originated by a former committee which started out last July to raise money for the purchase of the above property and for hospital improvements, will eventually be carried out.

The plans of the former committee struck a snag around the first of the year when, due to increasing deficits, the County Court ordered the hospital to be closed. After a public meeting, it was decided to keep the institution open and to try to raise sufficient funds by public subscription to assure its operation until a special levy election could be authorized, designed to raise an amount which would be adequate to meet any future deficits and to buy modern equipment and facilities for the hospital.

At the time of the public meeting the committee had succeeded in raising several thousand dollars for the express purpose of purchasing the Nurses' Home property and for improvements at the hospital. Although a new committee was formed, the sum has been retained by the former group until it could be assured the amount would be used for the purpose for which it was collected.

That this is the final result is indicated by the fact that a memreceived a letter from the County Court requesting that the money be made available for that purpose, and it was also reported that a local attorney is preparing a deed for the transfer.

If the special levy carries at the Primary Election on August 6th, it has been intimated that further plans of the original committee to bring about needed improvements in the facilities of the Pocahontas Memorial Hospital will also be effected.

In the intervening period the addition of a hospital manager has been made, and a hospital and doctor-bill insurance plan is being offered to the citizens. Both of these measures were advocated by members of the original committee.

The Journal makes this report to its readers to point out that the move from the beginning has been in the most beneficial direction. This newspaper, from the first, favored keeping the Memorial Hospital open. It has stated repeatedly that the county NEEDS the hospital, and has advocated that any additional equipment which was necessary to make it equal to other hospitals of similar size and obligation should be secured.

If the acquisition of the Nurses' Home will be a step in that direction, then it is a compliment to the intelligence of County citizens that one is being acquired. And if a special levy will be a further

For the second year West Virginia has been point award by the American Bankers Association according to W. E. Gandy, cashier of the First National Bank in Marlinton. He said the banks in Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia and Kentucky have also received awards. Gandy said that the awards were given to the state agricultural extension agents in November by the Agricultural Credit Association of Louisville, Kentucky.

Each year the association rates banks in the states on the basis of their services to agriculture, which are measured by numerical evaluations. The associations, the Credit Association of America, the American Bankers Association, the National Bankers Association and the National Credit Association, done by independent committees which consist of agricultural extension agents, bankers and others who are interested in agriculture. # Election Brings Many Changes

With returns throughout the nation showing a marked trend toward the Republican side of the ballot, the general election held Tuesday, November 5, brought many changes in office holders. The race between Harley M. Kilgore and Tom Sweeney for United States Senator was being contested in many quarters, and final results were not certain until after sittings of boards of canvassers in counties of the state last Tuesday. Melvin C. Snyder won over Congressman Jennings Randolph in the Second District, though both Kilgore and Randolph, and all other candidates on the Democratic ticket won out in Pocahontas county, but by margins so narrow as to be near record breaking.

Republican Leader Predicts Closing Of Shoe Factories

OPA Restricts Americans, While Britain Pays Higher Prices (With Our Money)

Charleston, Sept. 30.—"Two out of every three shoe factories in the United States may have to close down throwing thousands of men and women out of work, within the next thirty days because of continued bungling in Washington," Walter S. Hallinan, Republican National Committeeman for West Virginia, said today after being advised of the critical situation by a high national officer of the American Federation of Labor.

"American factories are unable to get leather because the OPA has fixed the untenable price of 15 cents a pound on it. Great Britain, probably using some of the money taken from American taxpayers for the British loan, is buying leather in Argentina for 28 cents a pound.

"But the tragic story doesn't end there," the speaker said. "The starry-eyed bureaucrats in Washington who are running UNRRA which operates on the theory of giving everything in America away have given huge quantities of leather to Russia and to the satellites of Russia, such as Yugo-Slavia, which shoots down unarmed American planes driven by wind and weather off the course of

JESUS AND SUPREME LOYALTY TO GOD

LESSON TEXT—Exodus 20:3-6; Joshua

The word "hate" (v. 26) does not carry with it any thought of malice or personal dislike. We know from other scriptures that we are to honor our father and our mother (Exod. 20:12). The one who forsakes his own is declared to be worse than an infidel (I Tim. 5:8).

"More than 8,000,000 feet of upper leather have been given away to them, and more than 2,000 metric tons of sole leather have been sent to these countries in recent months. The little leather that we might use to keep some of our shoe factories running and our people employed longer is being given to those countries at not one cent of cost to them. The American taxpayer, including the shoe manufacturer, pays the bill. The Washington bureaucracy long ago got the shirts off our backs: now it is going to take the shoes from our feet! The 'un-American Firsters' will keep on giving away our substance unless the people drive them from office on November 5th by electing a Congress that is overwhelmingly American, which is to say, Republican."

vice there will also be reception of members and installation of all officers and teachers of the church.

Hively Farm Gives Evidence Of Progressive Practices

A well kept farmstead with neat, painted buildings usually indicates progressive farming practices and methods, and the L. R. Hively farm near Huntersville proved no exception when the Farming for Better Living reporter paid a visit to the Hively place early this summer. Mr. and Mrs. Hively were enjoying a vacation in Virginia, but David, their 19-year-old son, a senior in Marvin-ton high school, was taking good care of the farm during their absence and knew all the answers. Mr. and Mrs. Hively are enrolled in the newly established Pocahontas County Farming for Better Living program.

The Hively farm includes the home place of 88 acres and an auxiliary 62-acre grazing farm. A Soil Conservation plan worked out for the farm includes strip cropping of the sloping ground and open dynamite ditching for drainage. A four-year rotation plan is in operation with two years of crops, and liberal applications of lime and manure are relied upon for soil improvement. One lime kiln was burned last spring, and another was planned for this fall. Woodlands have been cleared to permit better growth of timber.

The Hively meadows contain timothy, red top, alsike clover and some alfalfa. All have been treated with lime and manure, and timing of pasture is planned. This summer there were three and one-half acres of corn and three acres of wheat on the place. An acre of hybrid corn was being tried as an experiment.

Beef cattle and sheep are the major enterprises on the farm, with the sale of cream from six purebred Guernsey cows contributing to the farm income. There were 15 registered Hereford cows and a registered bull in the beef herd, with 15 heifers, steers and calves. Most of the beef cattle sales are made as feeder calves.

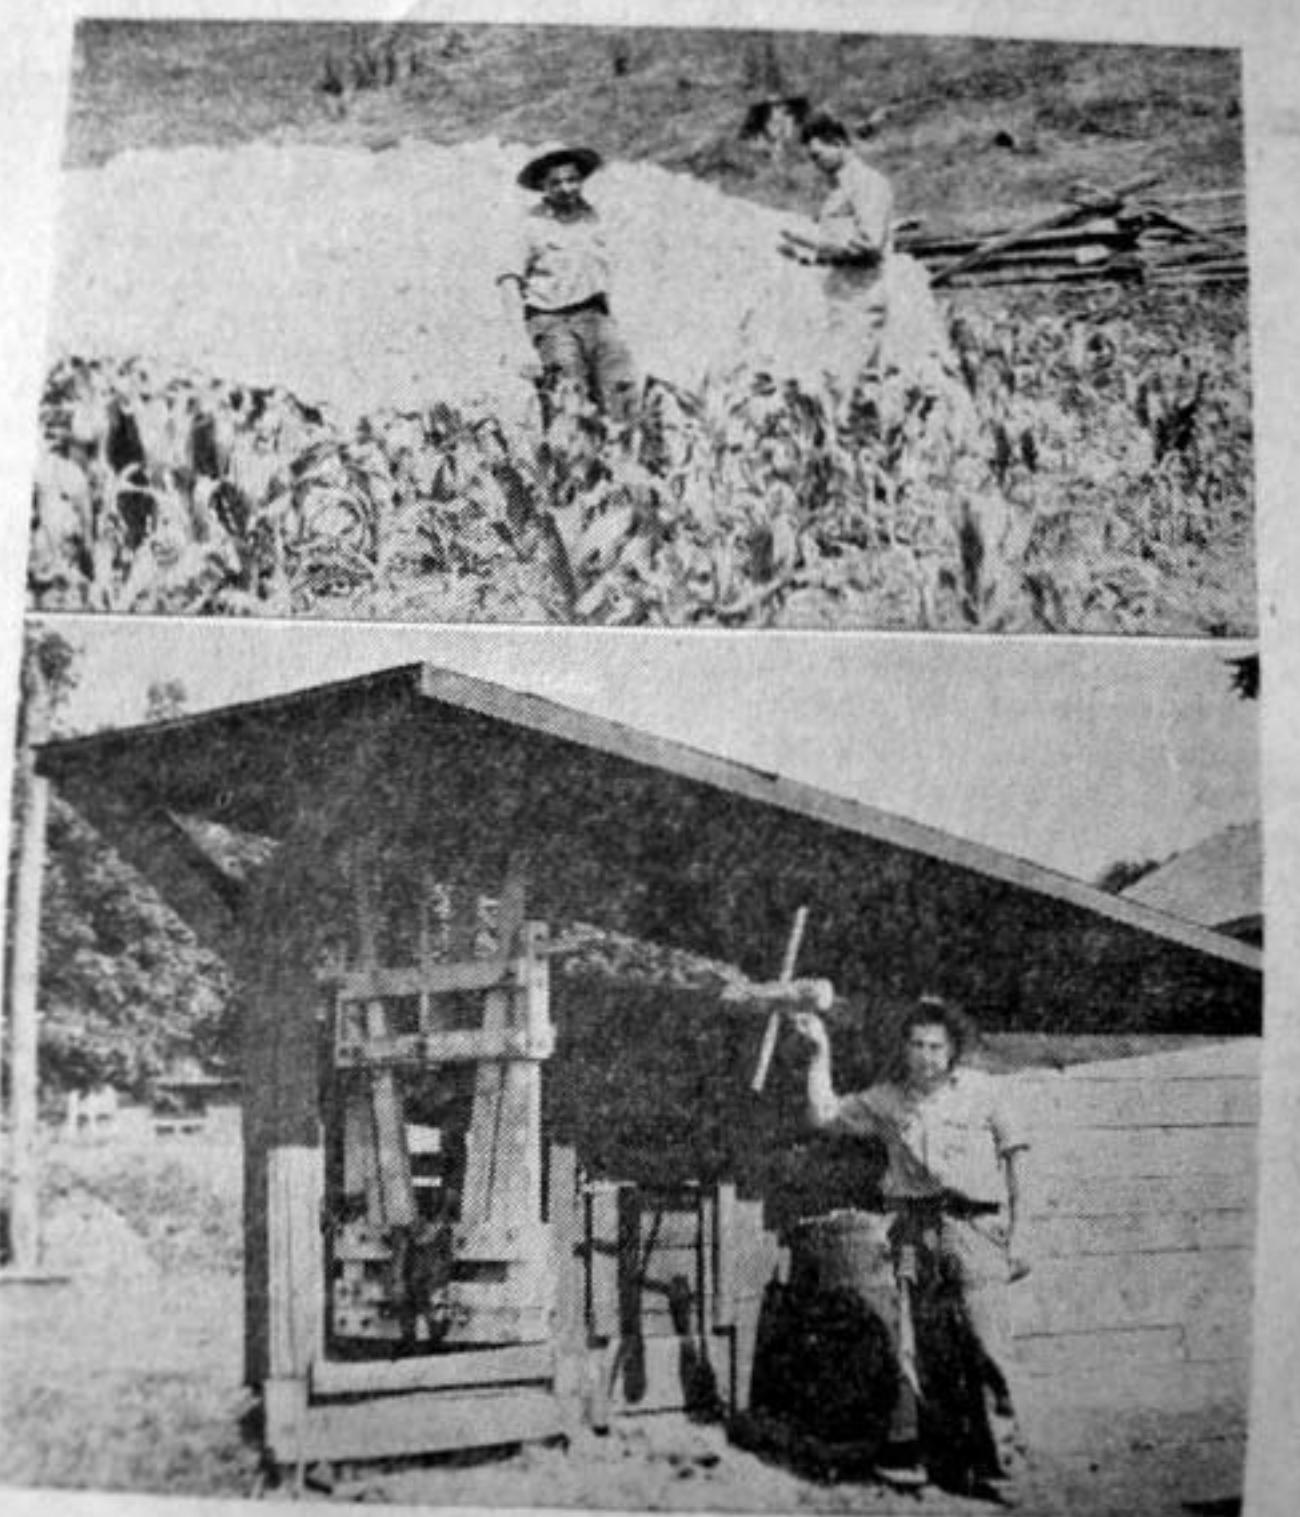

The sheep flock consist of 29 ewes in which the Dorset strain predominates, and the flock is headed by a Dorset ram. The spring lamb crop numbered 39, and the wool clip, which averaged about six and one-half pounds per fleece, was sold through the county wool pool.

There were a brood sow and four shoats on the farm this summer.

Sheets Elected By Oil Men

The Pocahontas County Division of the West Virginia Petroleum Association met at the Alpine Hotel in Marlinton on Thursday, May 2, and elected Carl L. Sheets of Marlinton as president, W. C. Linsley of Durbin, vice president, and E. H. Williams of Marlinton as secretary.

At the request of Governor Clarence Meadows the county oil group went on record to sponsor a drive on highway safety. In order to prevent motor vehicle traffic accidents, the oil men are carrying on a campaign by which they check the brakes, tires, lights and steering gear of all cars stopping at their stations and inform customers of any defects in that equipment.

Francis "Skeet" Farley, Executive Secretary of the state association, stated that all branches of the petroleum industry as well as auto dealers were present at the meeting.

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the problems of the petroleum industry in matters of taxation. Mr. Farley emphasized the expression, "fair treatment of the petroleum industry and highway users." He explained that they did not ask for any concessions which were beyond their rights in a republican form of government but only ask for equality and for the same consideration that is given by government to other industries and other groups of taxpayers.

The oil association will hold 54 similar organizational meetings in the state.
